

Butterflies

Available May through September
1- 1.5 hours

Follow the path of these fluttering beauties as we explore their lives from caterpillar to butterfly. Learn a few of the most common species found in Wisconsin and how to attract them to your garden or window. We will then journey to the wildflowers as we spy these warm weather visitors at work.

Tracks

Available December through March
1- 1.5 hours

Animals leave behind a number of clues for us to find as we explore our winter world. Learn to detect the behavior and daily routines of animals we do not often see through examining their tracks. Begin indoors with a slideshow on animal tracks and evidence of their adventures, then venture outdoors to hunt for some of these winter clues.
